

HERALD CAMERA-MEN TELL THEIR STORY

FASCIST FIST CASTS SHADOW OVER PARIS

Possibility of Fascist seizure of French governmental reins is being talked in Paris, with movement growing in the provinces. Photo shows 10,000 French Fascists listening to a fiery speech by M. Bonnet, a leader, in a meeting at Rheims.

KLAN PARADES DESPITE BAN

Ku Klux Klan failed to make good its threat to override police orders and parade in Bradley Beach, N. J., and instead put on a small demonstration in Neptune City, with Arthur H. Bell, grand dragon of New Jersey, leading 3,000 hooded men and women marchers. Photos show dragons, kiegles, etc., at head of procession, and klanswomen.

JUST A MATTER OF PRINCIPLES WITH ELKS

Judges in beauty contest put on by Chicago Elks chose (l. to r.) Jean Marre, Marie Hanley, Gerjorie Moline and Mona MacMillan to portray "Fidelity," "Charity," "Justice" and "Brotherly Love," respectively, in pageant which will be part of ceremony at dedication of new Elks temple. Jean Marre was declared to be prettiest of the quartet which will symbolize the principles of B. P. O. E.

Havana Venus

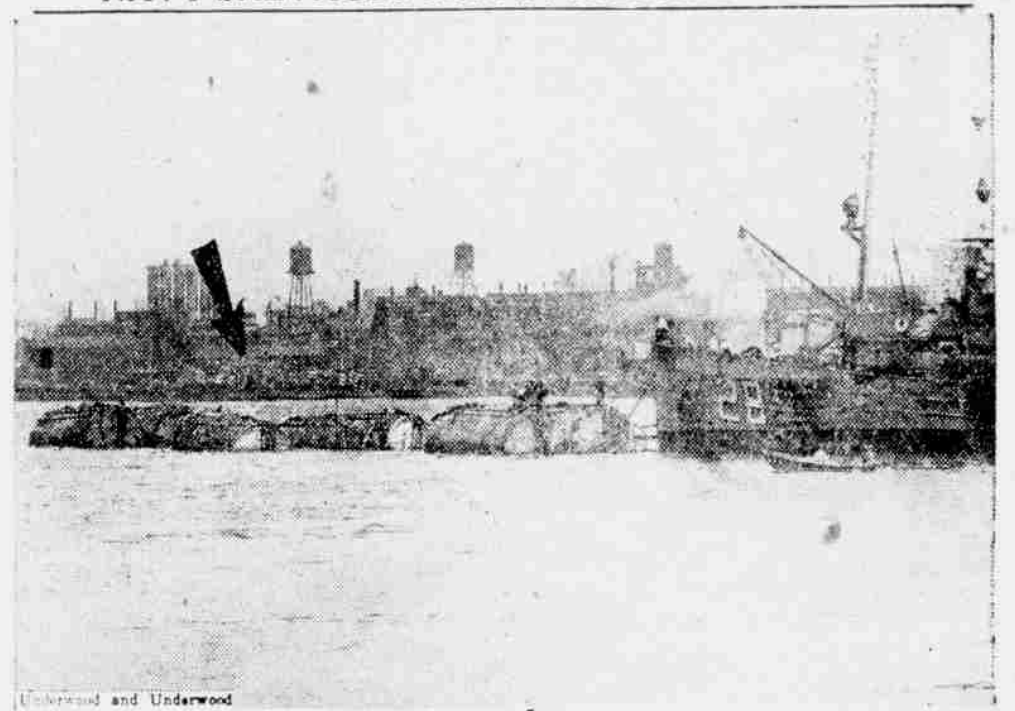

Pulchritude of Senorita Raquel Albert, who won trip to Paris in Havana beauty contest, is being acclaimed in French capital.

Farmer on Board

Sherman J. Lowell, New York state, new "dirt farmer" member of U. S. tariff commission, is in Washington being initiated into his duties.

NAVY SALVAGES COFFIN SUBMARINE AGAIN

Navy salvage crews at work taking S-51 off of reef upon which it was caught while being towed to Brooklyn navy yard with its cargo of dead, after nine months on bottom of ocean. Photo shows position of sunken sub in East river, New York, with pontoons.

"HULA" REDUCES, DIVA FINDS

Finest exercise for reducing is the "hula," declares Clair Smith, famed San Carlo opera soprano, back from Hawaii minus many surplus pounds. She is seen doing her "daily dozen."

Dry Hits "Dryness"

Edgar R. Ray, resigning as dry director for western Pennsylvania after a brief term, says, "This position is best suited to a rich man or a crook. I am neither." He blames men whom he denied liquor permits for bringing pressure to force his withdrawal, and calls prohibition "biggest swindle ever perpetrated on U. S."

GUARD SUBWAY STRIKE-BREAKERS

Charges that safety of passengers is being flagrantly disregarded are being made by strikers as New York subway lines operate with strike-breakers. Policemen are traveling with the emergency employees to prevent disturbances as photo shows. Inset is Edward P. Lavin, strike leader.

PARIS WILD AS FRANC DROPS

Paris Bourse, corresponding to New York's stock exchange, is daily scene of wild trading with franc's value steadily receding. Photo shows crowds gathered at Bours to get latest market news.

DURKIN TRIAL MAGNET TO MORBID

Murder trial of Martin Durkin, two-gun "sheik bandit" is drawing crowds to Chicago criminal court unequaled size since Loeb-Leopold hearing. Photo shows morbid sight-seers gathered outside building at early morning hour, hopeful of getting seats inside.

GLOBE-TROTTERS NEAR GOAL

Linton Wells (left) and Edward S. Evans, Americans, are nearing the last lap of their record-breaking jaunt around the world, with a chance of establishing a new mark of less than 30 days. They are seen leaving for Moscow.

RADIO IN RUSSIAN SCHOOLS

Soviet Russia is instructing its youth in intricacies of radio to insure development of the science in the future. Photo shows a class at Lientse village.

Boomed for 1928

William Lyons, Denver, western campaign manager for McAdoo in 1920 and 1924, predicts that A. Vic Donahey (above), governor of Ohio, will head Democratic ticket in 1928, with Al Smith as running mate.

Chaliapin in Films

Another Feodor Chaliapin is budding for histrionic fame. Son (above) of the world famous basso is a movie extra in Hollywood.